

A FISH STORY

by Jourdan Aery (Grade 3)

[Two friends, Grettle and Jede, were out fishing on the Lake of the Woods.]

Grettle: "I have a bite. Oh, no. It swam away."

Jede: "It's that fish."

Grettle: "What fish?"

Jede: "You don't know the Willie Walleye? It's the fish who nobody can catch."

Grettle: "Tell me the story."

Jede: "Well long ago a fish was born. A pro fisherman was fishing and he tried to catch a walleye but he couldn't."

Grettle: "So. What if it comes back tomorrow and I catch it!?"

Jede: "Yeah, right. You will never catch it."

Then they went home. The next day they came back. Grettle just sat and sat and she had a bite. She pulled it up quickly and ...there it was, a walleye!

Grettle: "I caught it, I caught it! Willie Walleye."

Jede: "You didn't...you, you did!"

Then Grettle went home and she told her mom she got Willie Walleye. Her mom told her that she couldn't have, but I will tell you the story. But Grettle interrupted...

"I know the story already," Grettle said with a giggle!
